

Interested in Social Justice Research? Intern at playLabNYU!

APPLY IF:

- ✓ You want to learn more about community-based research
- ✓ You are committed to social justice
- ✓ You enjoy working with children ages 6-12 and families
- ✓ You have EXCELLENT interpersonal skill, organized, and enjoy collaborative work
- ✓ You are interested in working with underserved communities
- ✓ You have taken coursework in psychology, sociology, anthropology, research methods, or ethnic studies
- ✓ Upper classroom and graduate students encouraged to apply!
- ✓ Students of color encouraged to apply!
- ✓ Bilingual Spanish speakers encouraged to apply
- ✓ You are available a minimum of 15 hours/week for at least 6 months
- ✓ You are available to attend mandatory team meetings every Tuesday at 9:30am

Photo by Pip Cowley

Project Description

playLabNYU is partnering with a community-based organization that works with children of incarcerated parents to break the cycle of involvement in the justice system. This will be a multi-year project, beginning with an ethnography to further refine and evaluate our partner's creative justice program model.

Research Activities

- ⇒ Support ethnographic research in a community setting through observations, field notes, and active participation.
- ⇒ Learn how to administer surveys, questionnaires, and standardized assessments with children, mentors, and families
- ⇒ Support data entry and qualitative analyses
- ⇒ Learn how to work with SPSS and run analyses

Note: This research experience can fulfill internship credits/hours. Field hours will be primarily between 2:30-6pm, with the possibility of Saturdays.

If interested, please e-mail your cover letter and resume as soon as possible, but no later than March 15th, 2019 to playlabnyu@gmail.com:

The subject line should specify the project: "Social Justice Intern– [your name]"

* Only candidates selected for further consideration will be contacted